

The Road Not Taken - by Robert Frost

Which road did the traveler not take, the first or the second one?

What finally determined his choice between the roads?

What kinds of differences might the poet be referring to in the:

last line?

the second?

the less traveled one?

What is the Symbolism of the poem.

What kind of dilemma is the poet faced with?

What evidence is there in the poem that the poet took a long time to reach a decision on which road to follow?

Why do you think the title of the poem is "The Road not Taken" rather than "The Road Taken"?

What can you tell about the character of the poet from the choice he made.?

In what way does the poem reflect the lives of so many people ?
